The New American Poetry, 1945-1960 by Donald Allen

In analyzing American poetry after 1945, it is traditional to point to the so-called battle of the anthologies that occurred with the publication of New Poets of England and America (1962), edited by Donald Hall and Robert Pack, and The New American Poetry: 1945-1960 (1960), edited by Donald M. Allen. The former put forth a literature that was
