This is a great book. I really loved it. I love the whole series. Read the books before this in the series before it. This is my kind of book. It is about girls from a sleep away camp, in the same book, and they leave camp, but stay in touch. It is really good, and talks about most of the girls from their bunk at camp, starting middle school.

They feel the pain of going home from camp, waking up thinking your at camp, and most of all missing your friends. Melissa Morgan writes the book through the eyes of 11 year old girls.
