A fascinating look at old buildings and the story they tell of how people lived from the late 1700s to the 1840s or so. I would have liked even more illustrations of some of the building types the author discussed, but it is a very nicely produced book, with lots of interesting information about how our ancestors used their living spaces.

I am a bat, and I live in a cave. I am a duck, I live on a lake. I am a goat, I live on a mountain. I am a hippo and I live in a river. Chorus Verse 3: I live, I live, I live in a city. I live, I live, I live in a town. I live, I live, I live in a village. I live, I live, I live in the countryside. Gestures for the "Where Do You Live?" song
