If war is a political act, victory at the highest levels is correspondingly defined in political terms. The implication is that tactical or operational victory without favorable political outcomes is sterile, and by any reasonable assessment that is true. But knowing that strategic victory is a political condition is not a sufficient understanding of victory.

My friend, you are already on victory ground. You already have everything in Christ (see 1 Corinthians 3:21, 23). You are already blessed with every spiritual blessing in Christ (see Ephesians 1:3). The devil knows this. And that is why his tactic is to deceive you and make you think that you don't have the victory.

Obedience is oriented toward God, victory is oriented toward self. Victory is a by-product of obedience. 2. We have misunderstood "living by faith". (Galatians 2:20) We assume that no effort at holiness is required on our part. We must face the fact that we have a personal responsibility for our walk of holiness. 3. We do not take sin seriously. Sin is an offense to God.
